

PROTEST AGAINST U. S. ANTI-JAP LAW RENEWED

CLEVELAND IS GIVEN WARNING OF BOMB EXPLOSION

BANKS MARKED AS BLAST TARGETS

Buildings to be Blown Up Today, Letter Says

POSTMASTER RECEIVES NOTE

Threat Against Customs House Fails to Develop

CLEVELAND. — (By Associated Press).—Postmaster Murphy received an anonymous letter at noon Wednesday that two wagon loads of high explosives were being brought into the city and that the federal reserve bank, the Union National Bank and the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company were to be blown up before midnight. Federal authorities communicated with the police and automobiles filled with detectives and police reserves were rushed to each of the three institutions.

N. Y. PROBE CONTINUED

NEW YORK. — (By Associated Press).—Six workmen appeared at the municipal building Wednesday and declared they had spoken with the driver of the "death wagon" that figured in the Wall-st explosion last Thursday.

Particular interest was taken in their story. For investigators vainly had sought to establish identity of the driver among the dead or the living.

The workmen said that five or ten minutes after the explosion of a bomb, believed to have been placed in the wagon, a man approached them when they were standing in front of a building being razed in the Wall-st district.

According to their story, the stranger said his horse and wagon had been blown up after he had left the vehicle to telephone to his employer. He said he had been ordered to build materials to Wall-st. He said he had been ordered to build materials to Wall-st.

STRANGER DESCRIBED

The workmen, employed by a house-wrecking concern, described the stranger as either a Slav or German.

The workmen's story served to revive an early theory that the explosion may not have been due to a bomb plot, but to a collision between an automobile and a wagon filled with explosives.

RENT DRIVE AIDED

Cleveland Officials and Bankers to Curb Profiteering

CLEVELAND. — City and county officials Wednesday promised to support the fair price commission in its war against profiteering landlords. Bankers have also promised to curb profiteering by calling loans on property owners found guilty of making "unfair increases in rent."

Dr. R. C. Rouche, chairman of the commission, said that he would ask for legal advice on the practicability of instituting prosecution proceedings under the Lever act. In the meantime, he sent out an appeal for all home owners to register their vacant rooms with the commission bureau.

This action followed the discovery that about 9,000 families will be forced to live in makeshift quarters this winter, due to the shortage in housing facilities. These families lived in tents and cots along the lake during the summer and are now being forced back into the city by the cold weather.

FLETCHER BILLED

Marion Editor and Others to Speak for Cox

COLUMBUS. — (By Associated Press).—Thomas Brooks Fletcher, editor of the Marion Tribune, chairman speaker, will stump Ohio for Cox. It has been announced. Among speaking dates decided upon are:

Northville, September 30; Tiffin, October 1 and Fremont, October 2. Franklin D. Roosevelt will speak in the state for three days beginning October 18, while Vice-President Marshall begins a tour of equal length on October 11, at Youngstown. Secretary of War Baker speaks next Saturday night at Dayton.

BIG REPUBLICAN PROGRESSIVES BOOST COX

By E. M. THIERRY.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Anti-Harding sentiment is growing rapidly in California.

Chester H. Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican, one of the most influential newspapers in the state, has come out bitterly against Harding. Rowell two years ago was Republican state chairman and in 1916 was on the Hughes National Campaign Committee of 16.

William Kent, former congressman, just defeated for the Republican nomination for senator, is against Harding. Kent has not made a public statement as Rowell has, but it is practically a foregone conclusion that before November he will publicly bolt the Republican party.

Both Rowell and Kent also favor Senator Phelan for re-election, the Phelan is a Democrat. This is also true of Fremont Older, famous California editor. It is not at all unlikely that Older, a bosom friend of Rowell, will follow the Fresno leader's action in bolting Harding.

The attitude of these three men, who have a powerful influence and big followings, is typical of the attitude of California on the national election. There is an enormous independent class of voters, many of whom apparently are against the Harding personality and platform.

"Cox can swing over this independent vote, which is necessary to enable him to carry California," said Rowell, "by continuing to show to Californians an outstanding personality and a definiteness of stand on issues."

Rowell is a strong League of Nations advocate. He believes Cox will gain many thousands of votes here on that issue.

Rowell set all California laughing by his ridicule of Harding.

"Harding doesn't know what the League of Nations is all about," said Rowell. "He doesn't even know what the Root plan is, tho he is espousing it. He told Hoover he was for the league and he told Hiram Johnson he was against it."

"Californians are so independent in political thought that they don't care a rap for party labels. That is going to be demonstrated in November."

Kent told me he regards Cox as a much abler and more efficient public official than Harding. He declared Cox would be helped materially by the fast growing anti-Johnson sentiment in California.

MYSTERY HOLDS

Kentucky Officials Unable to Solve Slaying of Girl

HARLAN, Ky. — (By Associated Press).—Investigation by Harlan county grand jury of the murder of Miss Laura Parsons, 26-year-old school teacher, has been discontinued. Examination of witnesses and supposed clues. It was announced, failed to establish identity of the slayer of the girl, whose mutilated body was found on a lonely mountain trail about two weeks ago.

County authorities, however, announced they expect developments after a chemical analysis has been made of a blood-stained coat found in a negro convict road camp near the murder scene.

TRADE AID URGED

Julian, Democrat, Would Encourage Foreign Commerce

COLUMBUS. — (By Associated Press).—Creation of a senate committee with the sole duty of working out proper legislation for the extension of foreign trade, was urged here by W. A. Julian, Cincinnati, Democratic candidate for United States senator, before the local Kiwanis club.

Julian also declared the federal reserve banking bill should be amended to enable this country to handle the long time paper of foreign merchants.

Only increased activity on the part of American manufacturers will maintain the balance of trade in favor of the United States he said.

'ROOT TO DEMAND HARDING CHANGE'

Right-About-on League is Sought, Cox Learns

GOVERNOR ENTERS ARIZONA

Finishes His Speaking Tour in California

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (By United Press).—Information that Elihu Root, shortly after his return from Europe, will demand that Senator Harding change his international policy to a declaration for the league of nations with reservations, was received by Governor James M. Cox Wednesday.

Root, according to Cox's advisers, believes it inadvisable to form a new association of nations, or try to remodel The Hague tribunal.

Cox was watching the situation closely and expected soon to emphasize that the international court which Root organized, is part of the league of nations and cannot be construed as Senator Harding's proposal for a remodeled Hague tribunal.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (By Associated Press).—Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate, who left California Tuesday night and who was in Arizona early Wednesday, on the way to Phoenix, spoke to the west Wednesday morning thru the Los Angeles Times, Republican newspaper.

Just before his train left Los Angeles, he asked the Times to publish the following statement:

"The nation must look to the west for its food increase. You have got the acres and there is much larger opportunity for development of that acreage in the west than in the east."

"I like your western spirit. Your people are eager, they are progressive; they respond more quickly to the spoken word."

GREAT PEOPLE CALLED

"I believe the Almighty realized that the task of realizing this western country required a great people, for you people are doing that great work with a wonderful spirit."

Governor Cox's program for Wednesday called for a number of speeches, as does that for Thursday which will see him on the way to New Mexico, with plans completed for visits to Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

POLES PASS OVER RUSS BOUNDARY

Ravno is Occupied by Warsaw Forces, Says Report

WARSAW. — (By United Press).—Polish troops have passed over the Russian boundary line in Galicia, according to the communiques issued Wednesday.

The statement said Polish forces occupied Ravno, several miles beyond the line of demarcation.

RUSSIANS ROUTED

LONDON. — (By United Press).—A Moscow wireless Wednesday reported the Poles had started a vigorous offensive in the Gdoino region and that stubborn fighting was in progress.

The London Times, commenting on disclosures of the communiques Wednesday, said the Russians had been driven out of Galicia.

It is reported here that the Russians had evacuated Ravno.

CHOLERA VICTIMS DROP DEAD IN STREETS OF WESTERN CHINA CITIES

NEW YORK. — An epidemic of cholera in western China has become so serious that people are dropping dead in the streets and carpenters are unable to supply the demand for coffins, according to a letter received Wednesday by the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society from Dr. Joseph Taylor in Chungking.

"The people look upon the scourge as a visitation of the Supreme Being, who is punishing them for their sins," Dr. Taylor said. "People are dropping dead in the streets. The supply of coffins has run out, although carpenters are working day and night. The dead are buried in trenches."

"Added to this pestilence, the province is in a state of war."

CHICAGO GIRL, 23 YEARS OLD, OLIVE THOMAS' CHUM. ENDS LIFE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK. — The young woman, who, under the name of "Elizabeth Anderson of Chicago," took refuge at the Hotel Seville last week and died Tuesday at Bellevue hospital, was identified as Anna Daly, 23, a movie actress who was a girlhood chum of the late Olive Thomas at McKee's Rock, Pa.

The identification was made by her sister, Mrs. Paul Black, who came here for the purpose.

Miss Martin said that before Anna Daly disappeared she gave her actress friends a packet of letters from a wealthy Chicago man, to whom they were to be returned. This man, after two years of interest in Anna Daly, had terminated their friendship about the time of Olive Thomas' death.

DEMOCRATS WANT ONLY $2,000,000

Gerard Tells Probers How Much Party Needs

BARUCH DECLINED TO SERVE

Ex-Ambassador Says $15,000,000 Would be Refused

WASHINGTON. — (By Associated Press).—While the Democratic national finance committee is not limiting the size of campaign contributions from a single individual, $2,000,000 total would be sufficient for the Democratic national campaign, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, and chairman of the committee, testified Wednesday before the senate campaign investigating committee.

Mr. Gerard was the first witness called at the reopening of the inquiry here Wednesday. Examined by Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa, Mr. Gerard said he had become head of the Democratic finance committee on September 5, and had asked Charles B. Alexander, Allan A. Ryan, John B. Stanchfield, Morgan J. O'Brien, Thomas L. Chadbourne, William Church Osborn, R. Thornton Wilson, Frank M. Patterson, Frank I. Crocker, George Gordon Battle, Mrs. Daniel O'Day, Gordon Auchincloss, Percy Strauss, Paul Fullerton and some others to assist him.

REFUSED TO SERVE

"How did you overlook Barney Baruch in making your list?" asked Chairman Kenyon.

"I asked Mr. Baruch if he would serve," Mr. Gerard replied, "and he told me he did not care to do so."

The witness said the committee named included only New Yorkers, but that he was endeavoring to form a local committee in each state.

"Are you limiting the amount of funds you will take from a single individual?" asked Chairman Kenyon.

"No."

"Take any amount you can get?"

"Any amount I can get."

$15,000,000 BARRED

Asked for names of persons in other states assisting the national finance committee, Mr. Gerard produced a bulky package of papers.

"They are to raise all the money they can get in the states," Chairman Kenyon asked.

"Would you take $15,000,000 if you got it?"

"No, that would be too large. So great a sum would shock the public conscience and insure the defeat of the party."

Mr. Gerard added that he had raised $128,000 so far, and declared that a $2,000,000 total would be enough for the Democratic national campaign and that he would "be thankful to get a million."

COUNTY COUNCILLOR IS SHOT TO DEATH IN HOTEL APARTMENT AT DUBLIN

DUBLIN. — County Councillor Lynch, a prominent Limerick manufacturer, was shot dead Wednesday morning in his hotel apartment, in the center of Dublin. His assailants are alleged to have been "Black and Tan" police.

The murder took place at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, according to the Press Association's account, when an unknown man entered the hotel, the Royal Exchange Hotel, and going straight to the room of his intended victim, shot him dead.

DEATH AND RUINS LEFT BY STORM

Hurricane on Gulf Coast Works Immense Damage

DETAILS AS YET MEAGER

Tempest Sweeps Inland With Intensity Lessened

WASHINGTON. — (By Associated Press).—The centre of the tropical hurricane passed inland west of the Mississippi river during Tuesday night and is now over northern Louisiana, the weather bureau announced early Wednesday. The bureau said the storm would diminish in intensity. Warnings on the Gulf coast were ordered down at 9:30 a. m.

WIRELESS ARE DOWN

NEW ORLEANS, La. — (By United Press).—One man was killed in New Orleans and damage which was not approximated at this hour was done in New Orleans, along the Louisiana and Mississippi coast by a hurricane of considerable intensity which shook the Louisiana coast line about midnight and swept inland between here and Mobile.

Wireless down in all directions from New Orleans and it is impossible to get accurate data on the amount of damage done by the storm and as to whether any lives were lost. A loaded train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad was marooned thru the blow at Chattanooga, and nothing has been heard from it. The big Louisville and Nashville bridge at the Alton is reported badly damaged and no trains are running over the system between here and Mobile.

John McPaul, a plumber's helper, was caught in live wires blown down, and electrocuted.

The wind whipped thru the city and uprooted many trees in St. Charles, Carrollton, and Esplanade. Just before communication was lost with Biloxi, Miss., a wind of 45 miles-an-hour was reported.

MAYOR M'SWINEY "REFRESHED"

Starving Executive Has Good Night's Sleep, Bulletin Says

LONDON. — (By Associated Press).—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, Wednesday began the 11th day of his hunger strike at Brixton prison, there being no change from his condition Tuesday, according to the report of the physician of Brixton prison to the Home office.

No reference was made in the report to the prisoner either accepting or refusing nourishment.

The morning bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League said that the lord mayor slept quite well during the night, and that, as a consequence he was somewhat refreshed.

The condition of prostration which lasted through Tuesday was said to have been somewhat relieved.

MAYOR'S KIN COMMENT

LONDON. — (By United Press).—Little change was apparent in the condition of Terence MacSwiney, as the hunger striking lord mayor of Cork entered the 11th day of his fast.

The striker's relatives commented bitterly Wednesday on English newspaper reports of MacSwiney's condition. They termed it "an attempt to travesty the sufferings of MacSwiney."

The appearance of articles alleging the lord mayor's condition was "falsely portrayed and asserting that he was 'well but sulky,' led to an indignation as to who was giving the reports. At the instigation of MacSwiney's family, physicians, nurses were questioned and warned to make no statement which might appear in print."

CAR RUNS IN RIVER

Several Believed Drowned in Plunge at Detroit

DETROIT, Mich. — (By Associated Press).—Police began dragging the Detroit river at the foot of Randolph early Wednesday in an effort to find the bodies of several persons believed to have lost their lives when an automobile plunged down a steep incline and into the stream shortly after midnight.

A watchman on a lake steamer moored a short distance away saw the machine plunge from the dock but was not certain as to how many persons it carried. He described it as a heavy touring car.

U. S. DELEGATE NAMED

WASHINGTON. — Appointment of Roland W. Boyden, of Beverly, Mass., as an official representative of the United States at the Brussels financial congress, under the league of nations, was announced Wednesday by Secretary Houston.

WILL CONTINUE TO PURSUE NEGOTIATIONS. CABINET DECLARES

RACIAL EQUALITY DEMANDED

Question to be Carried to League of Nations

TOKIO. — (By Associated Press).—The Japanese government, as a result of Tuesday's meeting of the cabinet, will, in the first place, vigorously pursue the negotiations concerning American anti-Japanese legislation, and in the second place, will push firmly the question of racial equality in the league of nations conference, according to the Hochi Shimbun, Wednesday. These decisions will be considered further at Wednesday's meeting of the diplomatic advisory council, the newspaper says.

The labor unions, in conference here, adopted resolutions pledging "harmonious cooperation with the Japanese laborers of California in their insistence upon their lawful rights." The resolutions were called to the California Labor Associations.

SPEAKERS SILENCED

At a public meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall here Wednesday, Representative Kodama, speaking on the subject, "An American-Japanese War," denounced American militarism, saying that as long as a threatening nation existed beyond the Pacific, Japanese naval expansion cannot be dispensed with.

Police interfered and silenced the speaker.

A graduate of Columbia University, New York, M. Osaka, who followed Representative Kodama, attributed the anti-Japanese sentiment in the United States to racial differences. He declared that the whites were oppressing the colored races, backed by the power and influence of civilization. Japan was the only country strongly opposed to white oppression, M. Osaka asserted, and therefore, had incurred the hatred of the Americans. The Japanese, he added, must strongly be determined to meet any serious consequences following the serious anti-Japanese movement prevailing in America. A large crowd acclaimed the speaker.

Altho Great Britain and the United States may oppose racial equality, according to the newspapers, Japan will insist by all possible means upon its acceptance by the league of nations.

In his address to the provincial governors Tuesday, Premier Hara said the situation of the world now was more strained than at present. He declared, Japan's problems had been confined to the Orient, but international competition had arisen, resulting in a marked increase in Japan's responsibility to the world and the expansion of her national expenditure. Japan had decided to withdraw her troops from Siberia, except from those places where consideration of the empire's defense rendered the stationing of troops imperative, Premier Hara said.

MILLERAND PICKED

Chosen As Candidate for Presidency At Caucus

PARIS. — (By Associated Press).—Premier Alexandre Millerand was chosen as a candidate for the presidency to succeed former President Poincaré, who resigned as chief executive of the republic because of ill health, by the joint caucus of the members of the senate and chamber of deputies in the senate chamber Wednesday afternoon.

Premier Millerand received 525 votes; Raoul Peret, president of the chamber of deputies, 157, and Leon Houssier, president of the senate, 115.

The voting was unofficial, but was accepted as a real test of strength. Premier Millerand was the only official candidate but the names of M. Houssier and M. Peret appeared on the ballots.

WORKERS REFUSE TO QUIT PLANTS

Italian Tailors Decline to Keep Compromise Agreement

MORE FACTORIES ARE TAKEN

Hotel Captured by Guests—Union Waiters Driven Out

ROME. — (By Associated Press.) — Italian metal workers who occupied factories in some of the larger cities last month, notably Turin and Florence, are refusing to evacuate the plants in accordance with the settlement agreement recently reached with the employers after government intervention, according to dispatches to the Giornale d'Italia. In Turin, in fact, says a message from that city, three additional works were occupied by the men Wednesday.

In fifty other works in Turin, the dispatch states, the majority of the men decided not to abandon the plants unless they received ample guarantees against reprisals from the masters and employers. They also are claiming payment of their wages for the entire period of their occupation of the works.

EVACUATION SLOW
ROME. — (By United Press.) — Reports here Wednesday indicated a general acceptance of the government's decree that industry be restored to normal, pending enactment of a law to give labor a voice in the control of manufacturing plants.

Milan dispatches said evacuation of factories was being accomplished slowly. Objections arose from some workers who were unable to agree with owners on the value of products turned out while the workmen operated the plants. Among the workmen themselves, there was discussion, the more radical asserting that the program of seizure should be continued.

At Turin, the radicals were said to be in control with the result that no factories had been evacuated. Plans were said to be proceeding for the operation of restaurants within the factories and for the exchange of workmen's certificates for groceries with which to feed the families left outside the factory walls.

GUESTS TAKE HOTEL
Meanwhile, Milan seizures had the tables turned on them when guests at the People's Hotel took possession of the hotel, first taken over by the waiters' union. These guests turned all servants out, reduced the price of rooms and managed the kitchen and eating rooms. The waiters protested vigorously to the confederation of labor at this high-handed treatment, but up to Wednesday, received no help.

Further attempts to obtain trade secrets and records from plant owners occurred in some sections, where the workers refused an armistice pending enactment of a control law. Manufacturers for the most part were displaced with the government's "yielding to the workers," but were anxious to resume control of their plants under the proposed armistice and were ready for the experiment which would give labor a share in the responsibility for success or failure of the business.

TEN RENT CASES

Tenants Make Complaints to Fair-Price Board

Ten new rent cases for investigation had been reported to the Allen-co fair-price commission Wednesday, according to Fair Price J. B. Dugan. Dugan said only three property owners will be called before the commission Thursday night, however, as there will not be sufficient time for the fair-price commission to make the preliminary investigation necessary on the ones reported since Tuesday. He said a second meeting at which further cases will be taken up with landlords will be held, probably next week.

In all cases where rents are increased, according to a decision of the fair-price commission earlier in the week, an investigation will be made by the commission to determine whether the increase is justified, if tenants make a report.

REED SPEAKS ON "TEAM WORK"

Addresses Central and South High School Pupils

"Teamwork" is the subject of an address to be delivered by Congressman Daniel A. Reed to pupils of Central and South high schools Thursday. Reed was associated with Cornell university for 15 years as a football coach.

It was announced Wednesday by Reed, who is in charge of the Lima chamber of commerce membership drive, that cards have already commenced to come in for reservations for the citizens meeting to be held at Memorial Hall Friday night and indications are that the hall will be filled to capacity.

Over a hundred are expected to attend the luncheon at the Lima House Thursday, when a team captain will be inducted in the method of approach in obtaining memberships for the chamber.

10,000 VETERANS IN PARADE

Crowning Event of G. A. R. Session Takes Place

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — (By Associated Press.) — The dwindling hosts of the army that more than 55 years ago took up the gauge of battle for the preservation of the Union, passed in review Wednesday. More than 10,000 members of the Grand Army of the Republic, here for the annual encampment, participated in the crowning event of the week—the annual parade.

The procession started at 10 a. m. The route this year was considerably less than a mile in length. But for those whose infirmities prevented them marching, automobiles were provided.

The parade was the only activity, aside from a few social events, slated for the veterans Wednesday. Their business session is to be held Thursday. Tuesday was occupied with reunions of various divisions and brigades.

K. OF C. DRIVE TO BEGIN FRIDAY

Campaign Will be Launched at Banquet Thursday Evening

Interest is at high pitch in the $200,000 bond sale which opens Thursday evening, to clear the Knights of Columbus recreational building and welfare center of indebtedness.

Team captain, in an informal report made Tuesday evening, declared there had been repeated calls for the bonds and that as soon as the sale is started, it is believed the bonds will go quickly.

The opening gun in the campaign will be fired Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, when 30 team captains and 200 team workers, with the executive committee of the organization, will enjoy dinner together at the Knights of Columbus building.

It is absolutely necessary that every team captain and every worker in this campaign be present at the dinner, the Rev. Father William A. Tobin, general chairman, said Wednesday.

Plans will be completely perfected and the organization receive the proper impetus for making the campaign, Father Tobin stated.

The sale of bonds will begin in a hurry Friday morning. The sale will continue Friday and Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, ending with a final certification meeting, Tuesday night.

The bonds will be of the denomination of $100 and will bear 7 percent interest. The buyer of the bond holds a mortgage to the extent of his investment on the new recreational building and welfare center.

Speakers at the opening banquet will be the Rev. Father M. F. Griffin, Youngstown, and Congressman Dan Flood, who is working in Lima in the interest of a greater Chamber of Commerce.

WEINER ROAST ENJOYED BY CENTRAL HI FACULTY

Have you been on a weiner roast lately? They are becoming the fall of Central High. In the past two weeks different groups of students have been planning and holding weiner roasts and now the faculty has joined the crowd.

Tuesday, after their weary day of teaching, forty members of the faculty crowded into automobiles and eventually arrived at that beautiful romantic spot known to the public as "Kissing Hill." There they disembarked and had a wonderful time, staging one of the good old fashioned weiner roasts. Shortly after 7 o'clock they returned to Lima to once more face classes of smiling, anxious, and hard working students.

NO CUT IN AUTO PRICES SEEN

Reduction by Ford Will Not be General Dealers Say

Lima automobile dealers Wednesday were unanimously in the opinion that the reduction in prices, made by the Ford Motor Co. effective Wednesday does not presage a drop in prices of other cars.

"If there is any change," declared H. A. Hawisher of the Hawisher-Hemmer Co. which handles the Studebaker, "it promises to be an increase. A number of manufacturers, including the Chevrolet have recently increased their prices, or are contemplating an increase soon." Hawisher declared a standard make of tractor has recently increased $200 in price.

L. R. Herritt of Sturtevant-Tones Co. declared there is no prospect of a drop in the Marmon. He, like other dealers, was of the opinion that the general trend of prices is upward.

Two dealers said the cars they are handling will be increased $100 in price within the month. The cost of production is given by manufacturers as the cause of the increases.

The great increase in the output of the Ford factory is given by a number of dealers as the reason for the decrease. They say it cannot possibly be an indication of the trend of prices in general. During the war the Ford company was averaging an output of 1,000 cars per day it is understood, while recently the output has been increased to practically 4,000 cars per day.

William C. Fendley, Lima distributor for the Ford Co., was preparing Wednesday for the biggest business ever done in the history of his agency. He declared the prices are exactly the same for which cars were sold in 1914. "The cost of transportation is slightly higher," he said, "and the war tax adds a little, but the price of the cars is the same as before the war."

The following is a comparison of the prices Tuesday of this week before the new prices went into effect, and the prices Wednesday, delivered to the purchaser, in Lima:

Touring car, with starter, old, $119.33, to new, $173.55; Roadster, with starter, $693.30 to $526.70; Chassis, no starter, $580.01 to $410.33; Coupe, $901.55 to $815.25; Sedan, $1031.70 to $870.31; Truck, $897.86 to $640.51; Tractor, $888.22 to $823.22.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith, 308 Albert-st, died Wednesday. The baby was born Wednesday night and will be celebrated at St. John's Catholic church by the Rev. Father Leonard Plunians Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be at Getsemani.

ELKS CLUB HOLDS CLAM-BAKE

Hundreds of Members Attend Festivities at McBeth Park

With good fellowship, all the delicacies the season afforded, surrounded by hundreds of visitors and with an ideal fall day, Lima lodge, No. 54, B. P. O. Elks, enjoyed their annual clam-bake Wednesday.

The march to MacBeth park, where the festivities were held, was preceded by a parade thru downtown streets, headed by the famous Elks' Hussar band. Automobiles in the parade were gaily decorated with flags and bunting.

Elks wore their funny little hats, which had been secured at the Elks' home, in exchange for tickets. They consisted of white skull caps of alternating purple and white, with the name and number of the lodge on them. The committee wore purple hats.

The principal meal of the day was at 1 o'clock when a sea food dinner was served. Many of the Elks who could not go out in the morning, attended the dinner or witnessed the ball game in the afternoon.

The Ohio Steel foundry team of Elks was lined up against the combined team from the Lima Locomotive and the Garford company. The big day will reach a climax with the chicken dinner, to be served Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Delegations came from the larger cities of Ohio and many visitors were present from lodges all over the state. All were enthusiastic in their praise of the hospitality and entertainment afforded by No. 54.

Credit for the successful day was due to the efforts of the local committee, which included Henry Steinhilber, H. A. Christy, Edward Crevia, Perry Ford, Ottawa, I. N. Pangie, W. E. Nye, steward at the Elks' home, John W. Beall, William Ranz, Julius Callahan and Charles Steinhilber, Delphos.

COUNTY ROADS IN BETTER SHAPE

Commissioners Expend $40,000 Improving Highways

County commissioners have expended the $40,000 they were able to get together for road purposes in the county and as a result highways are now in better shape than they have been at any time since last spring, according to James G. Mackenzie, commissioner.

"The whole county has been gone over with road machinery," Mackenzie said, "and commissioners have given the tax-payers the best they could afford with the money they had at hand."

"We hope to be in better shape to serve farmers next spring than this year. The coming year we hope to have sufficient road funds to begin early in the spring to repair and improve highways."

"Because of lack of funds this spring, people were compelled to ride over some mighty choppy places," Mackenzie declared. "If more than county commissioners, yet they were powerless to act," Mackenzie stated.

Not even the most remote and shortest road has been neglected, commissioners say.

MERCHANTS MEET

Credit Rating Dept. Praised—Visitors Made Addresses

Members of the Lima Merchants' association held their first fall dinner and business meeting at the Knights of Columbus building Tuesday night. There was a big turnout and members of the retail secretaries association who held their meeting here Tuesday were guests. All of these spoke.

The big thing brought out at the meeting was the fact, admitted by all visitors from other cities, that Lima has the best credit rating department to be found in the state or surrounding states. Much time was taken up in the praise of this feature of the Lima bureau.

President A. C. Cañarob announced that many things are to be taken up and discussed by the Lima merchants at the coming meetings.

Father William A. Tobin and Congressman Daniel A. Reed spoke. Music was furnished by a quartet Jack Robey, Jack Beall, Michael Van Pelt and Bert Synder.

MOTION PICTURES STARTED AT CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Wednesday noon the daily noon motion pictures were started at Central High School for this year. At the noon shows industrial films are used. These films are both interesting and instructive. Principal R. E. Offenhauer has a wide variety of films of this nature, the majority of them produced by big manufacturing concerns. Plans are being made to start the semi-monthly evening shows in the near future.

Central High school has lately purchased another machine making their motion picture outfit the equal of any in the city. Eugene Cox, one of the students is the operator of the machines.

SUMMER DEPARTS

July Warmth Here. Altho Behind Its Schedule

Seizing upon her last day of opportunity, Miss Summer of 1920 departed in a full blaze of glory Tuesday and Wednesday the first day of fall was ushered in with weather that rivals that of the mid-summer. Light summer dresses that were in the discard a few weeks ago with the cool weather have come into favor again, with Old Sol beaming down with all the warmth of a July day.

The thermometer at the Solar Registry registered 83 degrees at the noon hour Wednesday, several degrees higher than Tuesday's maximum.

COUNTY MEDICAL MEN MEET AT HOSPITAL

The regular meeting of the Allen-co Medical Association, in the nature of a clinic to study various forms of insanity, was held Tuesday evening at the Lima State hospital with Dr. Charles Clark and staff acting as hosts. About 50 members of the association motored to the hospital for the clinic.

The next regular meeting will be held October 5 at Memorial Hall. At that time Dr. O. S. Steiner will give a talk on "Fractures" while Drs. Huntley and Roush, both surgeons, will lead in the discussion.

MEN AND MATTERS

Harold Shepard, 125 S. Scott-st., who underwent an operation at the City hospital, is slightly improved.

Oscar N. Young has gone with the 100,000 club of the Ohio State Life Insurance Co. on an eastern trip. They will visit Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and then to Boston to attend the convention of the insurance underwriters. The members of the club will also visit at New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia before returning.

LODGE NOTICES

The Golden Gate Rebekah Lodge No. 260, will hold a business session at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Following the members will celebrate the 59th anniversary of the Rebekah degree.

All members of the Lima Encampment No. 6, F. O. F. are requested to be present Thursday. There will be business of importance. Visiting brothers are welcome.

WHEATLEY ASKED AS RECEIVER

Old National Files Claim in East Iron Case

Representing claims of the Old National Bank, Attorney James W. Halfhill placed a new angle on the East Iron and Machine Co. receivership litigation in Federal court, Toledo, Monday, when he filed a petition asking the appointment of A. W. Wheatley as receiver to succeed Vice President Mosher, named last week.

No definite action was taken by the court, but application of Mosher for the issuance of $50,000 receiver's certificates was reduced to $10,000. All local banks hold claims ranging from $600 to as high, it is said, as $39,000. A Cleveland bank is also a creditor in the amount of $25,000. A bankers' conference was held yesterday locally, but no announcement was made. It is claimed there are orders booked and in working to keep the plant running at the rate of $50,000 a month.

W. L. Russell, president of the company, is and has been out of the city since the receivership was granted.

ADRIAN HURST PASSES NAVAL ACADEMY TEST

A telegram has been received by Mrs. Emma Hurst, 316 1-2 N. Main-st from her son, Adrian, which stated that he had passed the Annapolis Physical examination, making him a student at Annapolis, as he passed the mental examination some time ago.

Hurst was a member of Central High School class of 1920. He was editor-in-chief of the Mirror, the high school publication last year.

BLAME FOR AUTO ACCIDENTS

LIMA has had its quota of auto accidents—pedestrians run down by cars in the street for the most part occurring while parties were jay walking or as a result of children playing in the street and running in front of machines when becoming confused.

While not all of the accidents that have occurred in the past were due to carelessness on the part of pedestrians, neither were all of them due to carelessness on the part of the drivers of the autos that figured in the mishaps, but it cannot be denied that some of them were due to a combination of carelessness or negligence.

There is always danger of accidents in city streets. With such a large number of motor vehicles, trucks, delivery cars and pleasure vehicles, coming and going in a continuous stream, it behooves pedestrians, particularly children, to "watch their step" while crossing a thoroughfare at any time, day or night. The average driver of a car is on the lookout continuously, to avoid accidents and while he is doing his part it is only right and proper that citizens afoot should also do their part.

Accidents that are due to a combination of carelessness can be avoided by a combination of carefulness. The burden of responsibility should not be placed altogether on the drivers of motor vehicles. A little observation at street corners will demonstrate the fact that many persons saunter across a street in an unconcerned manner, looking neither to the right nor the left, wholly unconcerned about danger that might impend. This leaves to the motor-man of a street car, the driver of an auto or a horse drawn vehicle all the responsibility if an accident is to be avoided.

It must be said to the credit of drivers that almost without exception they endeavor to obey the traffic ordinance, in spirit and in letter and this also helps to prevent accidents that would likely otherwise result. Each and every citizen should feel it their duty, to themselves and to others, to assist in preventing accidents by watching closely when crossing a busy street.

HOME INVESTMENTS

THREE Lima industries will soon offer stock to home investors. Each of these industries should be worthy, and should be successful, if properly managed. Two of them already have orders on their books aggregating over a half million dollars. The three industries combined at near capacity will employ 1,000 high skilled men, meaning in round numbers a population of 5,000 people.

Confidence of home investors has been more or less destroyed thru dark lantern methods in the past. If a new concern proved good, you couldn't buy the stock at any price; if it proved bad, the stockholders never knew it until the court or the creditors stepped in. Neither policy is right or fair; neither induces confidence or keeps capital at home. The open policy of the United States Steel Corporation or the Pennsylvania railroad might well be followed by local financiers. In lieu of dividends, at least send stockholders semi-annual or annual balance sheets and operating statements.

Encourage the listing of stocks, at least unofficially, thru some brokerage house. Let the investor feel there is a market—he it good or bad—for his stocks, and capital will flow into local industries.

Specific instances might be cited where local industries have produced wonderful financial results; few, in fact, have been colossal failures, and always they are from the same cause—poor management.

Put the right manager at the head of a "snipe" gathering company and in a few years it will be a cigarette factory. Put the wrong manager at the head of a prosperous railroad, and in the same number of years it will become two streaks of rust and a right-of-way.

There is every reason to believe that investments at home can be just as safe, just as profitable and just as sane as investments abroad. They should and will be encouraged, but stockholders must be protected and kept informed of the progress or failure of their industry.

IF THE CITY IS BROKE

AS was to be expected after losing some $65,000 income from saloons, the cry has gone up that the city is broke. At the same time, hear us a cry from renters that landlords are profiteering. But lo, a third cry, almost a scream, comes back as an echo from our landlords. They say at present market values, rents are not too high.

Who is right and who is wrong? All of them—city, renters and landlord are both right and wrong. But, if landlords must advance rents because of increased values, which is perfectly good logic and not to be condemned, why shouldn't the same increased values be registered for taxes? Ouch! Then the city would not be broke, the renters would not be gouged and the landlords would not be profiteers.

A concrete example: Man buys an apartment house for $25,000 five years ago. Rents then were $2,500 for the five renters. Now, the same apartment-house is worth $40,000. In fact, the owner is offered that but doesn't want to sell, which places him in the same financial position as if he had sold. Owner is entitled to 10 per cent gross income, which is about 6 per cent net. To get 10 per cent on his new valuation—$40,000—he must raise the rent on the five apartments $1,500 a year or $300 each; or just $25.00 a month, to which the renter naturally objects.

But what does the city do? Does it insist on raising the taxes? Not an insist; and there hasn't been. If this property five years ago was worth $25,000 and was on the duplicate for say, $20,000, then it should now be on for at least $20,000. Then the city would be getting taxes on $10,000 more property. Multiply these instances and you can easily see why the city, and the county for that matter, is broke. Neither need be. Instead of complaining, go after just valuations and honest taxation.

HEALTH HINTS FOR TODAY

IF that wonderful remedy, oxygen, were commercially exploited and its value for this and that complaint constantly dinned in the public ear and dangled in the public eye, as is the alleged value of hypophosphites, saccharin, blue vitriol, cottage cheese, alcohol, opium, alum and other more or less useless but well-disguised medicinal agents, I dare say naturopaths for swimming as a social pleasure would become as popular as restaurants and social gourmandizing now are. At present the great social pastime is reading. We eat more than plenty, at our regular meals, and then we go out somewhere and eat plenty more for the sake of sociability. Our consumption of superfluous nutriment is something prodigious. The overnourished and under-exercised woman at the matinee feels that she is not enjoying the show unless she has some chocolate or salted almonds or some other highly nutritious delicacy to nibble on. The young lady's escort feels that he is not giving her a really good time unless he buys her a marshmallow chocolate nut sundae, or maybe a full worth meal in a swill eating joint. Someone ought to found the American Amateur Enthusiast League, for eating is certainly one of our chief pleasures and among us there must be some phenominals who would quickly win fame. As a pastime, social accomplishment and healthful recreation swimming should practically supersede dancing, so far as the interest and enthusiasm of normal-minded young

JUST A GIRL

MARY'S PROMOTION

I often felt very uncomfortable whenever Mr. Watkins, the manager of the restaurant, was near me. He had asked me to go to the theater once or twice, and for a motor car ride. I had gone once to the theater, but refused to accept his invitation to ride unless Mary went also. Mr. Watkins had been very kind, very polite, to me, yet I had an uneasy feeling that if he had a chance he would make love to me. He favored me now, and made things as easy for me as possible. While I appreciated this, I also felt that if he talked of love to me I would have to give up my position, so I avoided him whenever it was possible. He was a quick-moving, business-like sort of a man, without much education, but with a good deal of executive ability. Mary finally noticed his attempts to favor me, and chafed me unmercifully. "He's falling in love with you sure as preaching!" she declared. "Now don't say 'nonsense' as you did about Moore. Remember, I guessed right about him!" "I hope you are wrong, Mary. I would be very unhappy if you were right. It would mean I would have to leave." The day after this conversation I thanked Mr. Watkins for something he did for me. "I always try to help the girls all I can," he replied. Then, lowering his voice, "But there ain't many like you here." I felt horribly embarrassed, it may have been that my thoughts showed in my face, for he asked: "What are you thinking about?" "Oh, nothing," I returned, but I felt uncomfortable, almost like crying. "May I take you out some night soon, Miss Stewart? To dinner—or the theater? I have something to say to you." "But Mr. Watkins, I never go out evenings—never unless Mary goes too," I exclaimed. "Never mind Mary. Make up your mind when you will go out with me and let me know." Mary had stood near enough to hear most of the conversation, and to guess the rest. So I was not surprised when she said, "Didn't I tell you he had a crush on you? He ain't a bad sort either. Zeena! You might look further and do a lot worse, the of course he ain't your kind, really?" "I don't want to look anywhere," I said. "I have something to tell you, Zeena." Mary said after a moment, "I have been going to tell you for most a week, but I seemed kind of wrong some way that it should come to me, instead of you." "What is it, Mary?" I had noticed she had been unusually quiet, but had been so taken up with my own thoughts I had paid little attention, and had said nothing to her. "Mr. Watkins has made me head waitress, Miss Black is going to

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT TODAY

The stars are friendly during the afternoon hours of this day. Again the stars warn of a financial crisis which will take place during the next few weeks. An attempt on the life of a member of the British parliament will cause a sensation. Women are warned against permitting romance to enter their official lives. A betterment of conditions in Turkey is forecasted. Persons whose birthday this is will likely be disappointed in love this year. Children born today will be clever but best fitted for routine work. VARIATIONS—MacNevin, Bone, Bonass, Bowen.
RACIAL ORIGIN—Irish.
SOURCE—A given name.

The family name of Nevin should not be confused with that of Niven, tho, owing to the ease with which one may be corrupted into the other thru the simple transposition of vowels which sound very much alike, there is no doubt that Niven has been changed into Nevin, and vice versa.

The family name of Nevin, unlike Niven, is distinctly Irish. It is not found among historical lists of the Scottish clans and sept.

It is derived from the given name of "Caamhin," which means "bones," and appears in its true Irish form as "O'Caamhin" or "Mac-Caamhin," with a pronunciation virtually the same as "nevin". In some cases Irish clans of this name trace it back to a younger brother of "Owen Mor," or Owen the Great, one of the ancient Irish monarchs, tho the family name does not track back to this same individual in all cases.

At various periods, under pressure of English laws and customs, the name has been translated into the English equivalent "Bone," and into Bonass and Bowen on account of their similar sounds.

There is a family name of Bowen also of Welsh origin, but it is not the same, being simply the modern form of "Ap-Owen," or "son of Owen." Tomorrow—Niven.

MOORE WILL AID IN CAMPAIGN

Quickening in Democratic Activities Around Capital

COMMITTEE NEEDS FUNDS

Control of Senate Given Much Attention by Managers

News and Times-Democrat Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Injection of a little more pep and the introduction of more business-like methods in the Democratic national campaign is expected to follow the entrance of Edmund H. Moore, of Youngstown, pre-convention manager of the campaign of James M. Cox for the Democratic Presidential nomination, into active participation in the campaign management.

Mr. Moore came to Washington this week ostensibly on private legal business, but he had not been here more than a few hours until there was a perceptible quickening of Democratic activity in this locality. The hotel rooms of the former Cox general manager became a meeting place for leading Administration Democrats and other party leaders who are interested in the continuation of Democratic rule in the nation, and a series of conferences extended through the first days of his sojourn here.

First reports of Republican writers were to the effect that Mr. Moore had come to Washington to map out plans for a systematic money-raising campaign to replenish the impoverished coffers of the Democratic national committee. This he denied vehemently, but he admitted that lack of funds was retarding seriously the proper dissemination of Democratic doctrine throughout the country. He admitted also that he will suggest to the Cox campaign managers that Democratic newspapers, particularly in strong Democratic districts, be impounded to raise funds for the national campaign by popular subscription. This plan, he said, not only will make it possible for the rank and file of the party to contribute, but also will reduce the overhead expense of soliciting contributions to the minimum. Other Democratic leaders with whom he discussed the plan were not so sanguine that much of a fund can be raised by this method, but they were willing to have it tried out since nothing better has suggested itself this far.

It is a matter of common knowledge in Washington that the Democratic organization is without the necessary funds to transport even ordinary routine campaign activities. The committee is a neophyte, and it is said, has nowhere to turn for assistance. Urgent appeals from Democrats in Maine for financial aid in the recent state campaign had to be ignored because there was no money to hand to draw upon, and the unexpected majority rolled up by Republicans in the Pine Tree State is attributed by Democrats to lack of organization and funds with which to carry on even the semblance of a campaign. On the other hand, they insist the Republicans were plentifully supplied with funds and paid workers.

It is known that one of the subjects discussed at the conference with Mr. Moore related to the Democratic publicity bureau. Many of the leaders complained that there apparently has been little effort expended to acquaint the voters of the country with the discrepancies between Senator Harding's utterances as the Republican nominee and his attitude and votes in the Senate. This they say is particularly true of subjects which have a special appeal to class and racial prejudices. The desire to "pull the record" on the Republican nominee frequently was expressed during the conference, and it is understood that a publicity campaign of this sort will be instituted as soon as a board of strategy can pick out the most vulnerable points in Senator Harding's position.

Among the Democrats with whom Mr. Moore conferred were Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer, Raymond T. Baker, director of the United States Mint, Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, National Committee chairman, George W. Pennell, Judge Lamar, Solicitor of the Post-office Department, Joseph E. Davies, former Federal Trade Commissioner, and others. It is understood that there is to be more active participation in the campaign on the part of Administration office-holders as a result of Mr. Moore's visit, with the likelihood that President Wilson will inject himself into the campaign with series of letters or public statements in support of the Democratic nominee. Whether the Administration wheel-horses have been slighted heretofore by the campaign managers is a matter of conjecture, but it was agreed that their advice and experience should be utilized to the fullest extent in the remaining weeks of the campaign.

Mr. Moore said his visit to Washington had nothing to do with the Senate committee inquiry into the collection and disbursement of campaign contributions. His position seemed to be that regardless of the outcome of the probe, the evidence

CONFIDENCE

Confidence in The Allen County Savings and Loan Company is evidenced by the two and one quarter millions of dollars deposited with them on interest.

This sum is the accumulation of several thousand depositors and consists mostly of small amounts ranging from a few dollars to several hundred dollars each.

There is no other way by which a person can invest a few dollars at a time with such good returns, safety considered. One may deposit any amount from one dollar up, at any time, and is not obligated to pay a stated sum at regular intervals.

However, it is a wise plan for the depositor to fix in his mind a certain minimum amount to save, then increase it as much as possible. For example, when extra money comes into his possession like back pay or increased salary, he can say, "I got along without this before, now I'll save it and get five per cent interest."

already submitted had substantiated Governor Cox's charge that a campaign fund of $15,000,000 was being collected to be used in furthering the election of Senator Harding. He also expressed confidence that Governor Cox would carry Ohio by a substantial majority and that the Democratic state ticket, headed by "Vic" Donahay for Governor, would be triumphantly elected.

Mr. Moore left Washington Thursday night for Youngstown to close up pressing personal affairs, and expects to leave there the latter part of next week for national headquarters in New York. He refused to indicate what part he was to assume in the management of the campaign, but he let it be known that he will give Chairman George White all the assistance possible in ironing out his troubles at the New York headquarters. It is a safe assertion to say that Mr. Moore will devote practically his entire time between now and election day at the New York headquarters where his long experience and ability in handling political campaigns will be of inestimable value to the national committee. It apparently has come to be recognized that the new arrivals in state political leadership who laid claims to having nominated Governor Cox with a brass band and high hats are unable to repeat their success in a grueling national contest which calls for the very best in political sagacity and experience.

While the election of a President is absorbing the attention of the country, rival party managers are almost equally concerned over the control of the Senate. They realize that the success or failure of the next administration depends largely upon having a Congress, and especially a Senate because of the paramount issue of the League of Nations, to conform to the political complexion of the chief executive. Consequently Republicans and Democrats are putting forth extraordinary effort to win the upper house of Congress.

The narrow margin separating the two parties in the Senate adds uncertainty and intensity to the Senatorial fight. The Republicans now have a majority of two in the Senate—49 to 47—and determined efforts are being made to increase this advantage so that Senator Harding would have a safe working majority in that event of his election. On the other hand, Democrats have high hopes of winning out this slender Republican majority. Should Governor Cox be defeated, the Democrats expect to at least control the Senate.

With local conditions controlling in Senatorial contests combined with complex factional fights, split party tickets may add confusion to the result. Thus the possibility of a Republican President and a Democratic Senate or vice versa, is by no means remote. Such a condition now exists, and the handicaps under which a "minority" President labors were well illustrated during the last session of Congress.

The prospect for a settlement of the overshadowing League of Nations issue in the near future may hinge in an important degree on the complexion of the new Senate. Senator Harding, in the event of his election, could hardly hope to obtain the immediate passage of the repudiation resolution to which he committed himself in his speech of acceptance, unless he was supported by a Republican majority. Conversely, all hope of ratifying the treaty and the League covenant which Governor Cox advocates would apparently be dispelled if the Republican White House with a hostile Senate confronting him.

The seats of 32 Senators, whose terms expire March 4, 1921, are at stake in this election. Seventeen of these incumbents are Democrats and 15 are Republicans. Two other seats, vacated by death during the last session of Congress will be filled by election, but as both are in the "solid South" group it is conceded the new occupants will be Democrats. Republican leaders concede the election of Democrats in seventeen states: Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama. Democrats tacitly concede five states to the Republicans: Iowa, Kansas, Vermont, Washington, and Pennsylvania. This leaves twenty states roughly characterized as "debatable territory."

MOULTON LUMBER CO. DOUBLES CAPITAL STOCK

An increase in the capital stock of the Moulton Lumber Co., 236 N. Central-ave from $50,000 to $100,000 was granted by the secretary of state Wednesday. H. S. Moulton, president of the company stated that the increase was simply for the purpose of enlarging their stock, as it was insufficient to care for the large amount of business H. A. Riggs is general manager of the company.

COONEY WINS ONE CLUB MATCH

Plays a 45 to a 44 Using Only Midiron for all Shots

Walter M. Cooney won the cash prize of $10 offered by Dr. A. S. Knisely for the best total on Shawnee club's links, with the player using only one club of his own selection. Cooney played the first round in 45 and the second in 44.

Fifteen players started in the match, but Tom Schenover and McClure quit after a few holes' play. Dr. Knisely, a veteran with the brassie, barred himself and Warren J. McLaughlin who is an artist with a jigger. The midiron was the favorite club of the player, but some used brassie and others mashes and jiggers. The final scores were as follows:

Player	Out	In	Total
Cooney	45	44	89
McClure	50	41	91
Knisely	4	39	43
King	46	49	95

DUVETYN FROCK IN LEAF BROWN SHADE

"Oh, for a frock that I can wear anywhere," with much emphasis on the anywhere, is the cry of every woman today. It is that between season time when summer frocks are usually out of place and winter ones are often too warm. The simple short-sleeved duvetyns and tricots are just the thing for general utility wear now. They are appropriate for almost every occasion of the daylight hours and are quite comfortable for traveling without the bother of an extra wrap.

This smart frock, which will just fill the needs of the woman wanting something to wear "anywhere," is made of leaf brown duvetyn. It is fashioned on excellent lines for general wear and is becoming the most figures. Novel playing at the hips gives the skirt a somewhat ogled shape silhouette. A narrow, crossed belt marks the waistline. Short sleeves, a tiny flit of self material and a collar which may be fastened up under the chin are the distinguishing features, while a narrow black ribbon tie is the finishing touch.

SUSIE SMART SAYS:

DEAR SUSIE—I am a girl of 18, and am going with a boy of 20. I have been going with him for nearly a year and he has asked me to marry him and I told him I would in September. Now he expects me to marry him but when we are together we quarrel constantly. It is always my fault as I always start everything. I do it just to tease him. We quarrel one minute, and the next we are the very best of friends. He says that he likes me just the same. Do you think if we get married we will quarrel like we do now? Is it true that loves never run smoothly? When do they begin wearing serge dresses?

ANS.—Don't you think you are a little too old to persistently tease someone when you know they do not like it? If you love him and he loves you, and you both love each other, get married and have it over with. Try to be more considerate of the young man's feelings and refrain from making him angry. Regarding the saying about true love never running smoothly, I suppose it's true enough. Serge dresses are being worn very much at the present time.

DEAR MISS SMART:—(1) What color would be best to dye a grey silk, poplin dress? (2) Is "The Room With The Tapestries" a true story? (3) What relation is Natalie Talmadge to Norma and Constance Talmadge? Thank you.

ANS.—(1) Dye the dress navy blue, as that color takes about as well as any. (2) "The Room With The Tapestries" is a present-day fiction, which is not very often based on real life. (3) Natalie is the youngest sister of Norma and Constance Talmadge.

DEAR MISS SMART:—Please answer the following questions: (1) What is the address of Charles Ray, Constance Talmadge and Mary Pickford? (2) What do the following names mean? Clara, Cleo, Lillian, Ruth, Gladys, Harry, Edith. Thank you.

ANS.—Charles Ray and Constance Talmadge's pictures are released thru First National, 6 West 44th St., New York City. Mary Pickford, United Artists, Los Angeles. (2) Clara means bright, illustrious; Cleo, valiant; Lillian, good, desirable; Ruth, beauty; Gladys, lucky; Harry, a champion; Edith, happiness, rich gift.

DEAR MISS SMART: My husband doesn't know how to read or write. I would like to teach him. Will you please tell me how to go about it? What shall I begin with? He is not very old yet. Will I have to buy books to begin with?

THANK YOU.

Inquire of the principal of a grade school. There you will receive advice about methods and books to buy. I presume you will need one or two books. They will be inexpensive, however.

DEAR MISS SMART: I am a young married woman without children and have lots of spare time at home. What can I do to make a little extra money these hard times without going away from home? Thanking you in advance, I am ANXIOUS.

ANS.: There seems to be a great demand for seamstresses, and if you are handy with a needle, you can make quite a lot extra by sewing for other people. If you are not a dressmaker, you can solicit paid sewing from your friends. There are very few ways of earning money at home.

DEAR MISS SMART: Will you please answer the following questions: Is Mary Garden and Pompano rouge very good rouge to use? If so, which is the best of the two. What is the best cold cream to use.

ANS.: I am not at liberty to recommend certain toilet articles in this column. Besides, nearly every one's skin is different and what would agree with one person's skin would not agree with another's. You will have to find this out by using different kinds. Orchard white is said to remove tan very effectively. Vaseline used several times a week will promote the growth of the eye lashes and eye brows, but be very careful not to get any in the eyes, as it is injurious.

DEAR MISS SMART: (1) I am a girl of 16, and have been going with a young man of 21. We were acquainted in his home town and now he visits me. I told him I was two years older than he really am. Would it be alright to tell him before someone else does. (2) Is it proper to entertain an out of town fellow over night if your parents consent?

ANS.: (1) It probably does not make a great deal of difference to the young man as to how old you are, but I would tell him before he finds out from other sources. (2) Certainly not. Even if your parents consent, it is not proper to permit the young man to remain over night.

MISS G. S. P.

Dressing: One tablespoon tumeric, two tablespoons mustard, mix. Smooth with cold vinegar and add to the pickles.

Corn Salad—Cut corn from two dozen ears. Chop one large head of cabbage, four large onions, four green (sweet) peppers, one red pepper with seeds removed. Add one quart vinegar and boil until nearly done.

Mix three cups sugar, one-half cup salt, one-quarter cup dry mustard, one teaspoon tumeric, three-quarters cup flour. Blend with another quart of vinegar and add to boiling salad. Boil one-half hour longer.

Seal hot. This makes about eight quarts.

Dearborn Pudding—One cup suet chopped fine, one cup chopped raisins, one cup sweet milk; one-half cup molasses, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, salt, one egg, two teaspoons baking powder, sifted with flour. Use enough flour to make as stiff as cake dough, steam three hours. Serve with any good sauce.

also a good face powder. Will orchard white take off the tan and freckles? Will white vaseline make your eye-lashes and eye-brows grow?

Vaseline used several times a week will promote the growth of the eye lashes and eye brows, but be very careful not to get any in the eyes, as it is injurious.

DEAR MISS SMART:

(1) I am a girl of 16, and have been going with a young man of 21. We were acquainted in his home town and now he visits me. I told him I was two years older than he really am. Would it be alright to tell him before someone else does. (2) Is it proper to entertain an out of town fellow over night if your parents consent?

ANS.: (1) It probably does not make a great deal of difference to the young man as to how old you are, but I would tell him before he finds out from other sources. (2) Certainly not. Even if your parents consent, it is not proper to permit the young man to remain over night.

MISS G. S. P.

Dressing: One tablespoon tumeric, two tablespoons mustard, mix. Smooth with cold vinegar and add to the pickles.

Corn Salad—Cut corn from two dozen ears. Chop one large head of cabbage, four large onions, four green (sweet) peppers, one red pepper with seeds removed. Add one quart vinegar and boil until nearly done.

Mix three cups sugar, one-half cup salt, one-quarter cup dry mustard, one teaspoon tumeric, three-quarters cup flour. Blend with another quart of vinegar and add to boiling salad. Boil one-half hour longer.

Seal hot. This makes about eight quarts.

Dearborn Pudding—One cup suet chopped fine, one cup chopped raisins, one cup sweet milk; one-half cup molasses, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, salt, one egg, two teaspoons baking powder, sifted with flour. Use enough flour to make as stiff as cake dough, steam three hours. Serve with any good sauce.

DEAR MISS SMART: I am a young married woman without children and have lots of spare time at home. What can I do to make a little extra money these hard times without going away from home? Thanking you in advance, I am ANXIOUS.

ANS.: There seems to be a great demand for seamstresses, and if you are handy with a needle, you can make quite a lot extra by sewing for other people. If you are not a dressmaker, you can solicit paid sewing from your friends. There are very few ways of earning money at home.

DEAR MISS SMART: Will you please answer the following questions: Is Mary Garden and Pompano rouge very good rouge to use? If so, which is the best of the two. What is the best cold cream to use.

ANS.: I am not at liberty to recommend certain toilet articles in this column. Besides, nearly every one's skin is different and what would agree with one person's skin would not agree with another's. You will have to find this out by using different kinds. Orchard white is said to remove tan very effectively. THE ROOM WITH THE TASSELS

By Carolyn Wells

That night Zizi declared that she hoped the ghost would visit her. She said this openly, as the whole crowd were preparing to go their rooms for the night.

"Perhaps it will," said Wise, looking at her, thoughtfully. "If it called on Mr. Tracy last night, it may be here again tonight, and you may be favoured. Are you not afraid?"

"Not of the ghost," said Zizi, "but I am afraid that some of you people may play a trick just to scare me. Will you double up, so I can feel sure there's nothing of that sort?"

"I'll take Mr. Tracy's room," said Mr. Wise, "then I can keep my eye on Mr. Braye and Professor Hardwick. The I've no mental image of either of them trailing round in sheets!"

"I should say not!" and Braye shuddered. "No, Miss Zizi, you've nothing to fear from us."

"Nor us," Norma assured her. "I was going to sleep in the room with Miss Carnforth, anyway, and that will preclude either of us impersonating a phantom."

"What an awful idea," and Eve glowered at Zizi. "You don't really think any of us would stoop to such a despicable thing, do you?"

"You never can tell," said Zizi, nonchalantly. "Mrs. Landon, you won't let your husband leave your room, will you?"

"No," said Milly, not at all resenting the question which Zizi put to her in a gentle, pleading tone, very different from that she had used to the others.

And so, the inmates of the house being accounted for, and the doors and windows looked after with extraordinary care and precaution, the household settled itself to quietness, and the dark hours passed, ticked off and struck by the great deep-toned clock in the hall.

It was between two and three, when Zizi, watching, perceived her door slowly and silently swung open.

Determined to learn all possible as to who the intruder could be, the girl lay motionless, but breathing deeply as if asleep.

Her eyes, almost closed, yet took in every movement of her silent visitor.

It was no white-robed ghost, but the tall figure, clad in a long black cloak, and wearing a black mask.

With a swift stride, that betokened a man, the figure approached the bed, having first softly closed the door that led to the hall.

Watching covertly, for the next development, Zizi was all unprepared for what really happened.

The man, with a sudden, swift gesture, took the girl's chin in one strong hand, and opened her mouth, while with the other he thrust in a thick soft cloth, saturated with chloroform.

Not enough to make her lose her senses entirely, it partially stupefied her, and the choking cloth prevented speech.

Whipping off the long dark cloak he wore, the man flung it round Zizi, as he lifted the slender form from the bed.

Vainly trying to emit a shriek, or utter a groan, Zizi fell, half-conscious, back in the arms that supported her.

DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

CECIL REVEALS HIS PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

Cecil and I had the very best sort of a time all evening. We got on famously, and I guess we both had been feeling dead lonely or something and had met at the psychological moment. Somehow, we just laughed, and enjoyed every moment of the time together. I declare I never found out before how nice he is. Seems funny, too, for he lived with us for quite a while, and I saw him three times a day at least—at meal times. But of course I was always busy in New York, and that's why, I suppose.

After a good dinner at our friendly little restaurant, we went to see "The Shop Girl," which is playing at The Gaiety theater. We enjoyed every minute of that, too. The music was delightful and we were happy, so take it all in all I'm glad that I ran into my dark-eyed cousin here in London. There can't be a bit of harm in seeing him, after all, for he's evidently forgotten that he ever lost his head about you, truly!

After the theater, we walked home, and sat down in one of the parks to enjoy the moonlight for a few moments, and again my cousin, never by word, look or deed, behaved in any other way than as he should. Surely he has changed mightily. Once, just once, I caught his black eyes contemplating me, and I turned away quickly lest he think that I was encouraging him to—well, to remember.

He told me some of his plans for the future, and they are really interesting. When he leaves Paris he will sail for America, stop off a few days in New York to say hello to my dear old dad, and then it's heigho for the land of the sunsets for him. Yes, Cecil has decided to go out to California and try his luck. Says he wants to see and maybe settle in Santa Clara valley—where all the luscious fruit comes from. Buy him a fruit ranch and just bask in the sunlight and raise prunes and things. Back to nature for him. Says it

After an unknown interval, a draught of cool air on her face brought her back to a dim consciousness, and she realized she was out of doors. A struggle of her arms and legs resulted in a firmer grasp of the strong arms that carried her, and she quit moving, to think. She had been kidnapped taken from her bed, and had been carried out of doors, but she had no knowledge of who her captor was nor by what means they had left the house. Her brain was furiously wide awake, but she made no move, lest more chloroform be administered and she lose her regained consciousness.

On the shore of the black lake the man stopped, and set her on her feet. Her mouth, still filled with the soft cloth, was strained and painful, but the first attempt to raise her hand resulted in its being clutched by the strong hand of the man who swayed her destiny.

So slender and light was she that he handled her as one might a child, and in his strong grasp she was as powerless as infant.

Working quickly and deftly, he tied a strong rope round her ankle, and to it attached what was only too evident a bag of stones or bricks.

Then, without a word, he flung her into the deep, dark waters of the lake and with one backward glance, he walked away.

ing a long letter to Jack to tell him just how unhappy he has made me by his silence, and all that. It's quite on the cards that the letter will never be mailed, for after all it may be foolish to let him think that I care whether he writes by post or not. But it does me good to get all my thoughts down on paper before me, somehow.

We leave for Paris any after tomorrow, and Cecil leaves the day after that. I hope that seeing me helps him to get back to normal again, for there is a tone that makes me feel so material as he does, somehow or other, and I should no near him, and I'm not sure, but two eyes on him all the time for his soul's sake!

FOR FORCE AND ENDURANCE AT ALL DRUGGISTS

When a Doctor Sneezes

Doctors, out in all kinds of weather, suffer frequently from colds yet seldom seriously.

There's a good reason. Doctors realize the danger and upon appearance of the first symptoms of cold begin taking medicine to check its progress.

Follow the doctors' example and you too will escape the serious consequences of neglect. Take Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets as soon as you feel a cold coming on. They stop a cold right off; ward off fever, cleanse intestine; never gripe or sicken. Druggists guarantee them—only one a box.

The Last Corn

When you end your corn with Blue-jay, it will be the last corn you let grow. You will know how to stop the pain. And how to quickly and completely end all corns.

There are millions who use Blue-jay now, and they never let a corn remain.

The new-day way

Blue-jay is the new-day way, the scientific method.

It was perfected in a laboratory world-famed for its surgical dressings.

It is supplanting the many treatments which are harsh and inefficient.

It has made paring as ridiculous as it is unsafe, for paring doesn't end corns.

Do this tonight:

Apply to a corn a Blue-jay plaster or liquid Blue-jay—which ever you prefer.

Mark how the pain stops. Then wait a little and the corn will loosen and come out.

© B. B. 1929

What that corn does all corns will do. Some 20 million corns a year are ended in this way.

Don't suffer corns. Don't have your feet disfigured. They can be ended almost as easily as a dirt-spot on your face. They are just as inexcusable.

Don't forget this. It means too much to you.

Ask your druggist for Blue-jay.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Mrs. J. Christman Proved That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a Remedy for this Trouble.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"I was in a very nervous condition for over a year, my mind was gloomy, could see no light on anything, could not work and could not have anyone to see me. Doctor's medicine did not help me and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. I took it and am now well. I recommend it to all afflicted with nervous prostration." Mrs. J. CHRISTMAN, 123 Oak Street, Binghamton, New York.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feelings, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

THRILLS APLENTY IN PICTURE

"Her Elephant Man" Also Has a Fine Love Story

SHIRLEY MASON IN LEAD

Circus Life and Jungle Atmosphere Are Mingled

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
WHATEVER the world may be coming to, the movies seem to indicate that there has been improvement in public taste in the past several years. Directors are seeing to it that fans are provided with real thrills, combined with a nice little love story or a more lugubrious triangle plot, beautiful scenery and plenty of it. Once in a while a picture contains everything one could desire, and such a film is "Her Elephant Man" showing at the Sigma theatre.

Little Shirley Mason has the role of Joan, daughter of a missionary in Africa, who, when her dad dies, is left to the care of the tribe until such time as a caravan passes their way. Fate throws into her path Philip Dorset, who deserted his wife on their wedding day and who tried to forget his unhappiness in the African jungle.

Joan is adopted by the owner of a circus and becomes one of its brightest stars. Philip is the man who trains the elephants, from whence he gets the title of "the elephant man." In the course of events, everyone in the plot ends up at the circus, the wife of Philip and the ex-circus driver who knew of the cause of the separation. Things get complex in a short time and Philip finds that he loves the little bare-back rider Joan. You know that he is going to marry her sometime, but a lot of things happen before he can, which makes up the bulk of the story.

A circus in action is one of the features of the film and there's a terrific wind storm that provides many many thrills for everyone. The desert scenes and interiors are all that they should be, and Albert Roscoe makes a handsome leading man. You can't blame Joan for falling in love with him, for he makes an ideal lover.

"Her Elephant Man" is recommended.

Whole Life Was Miserable From Stomach Trouble

Cabinet Maker Suffered Tortures From Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas In Stomach, and Constipation. Became Quite Nervous and Had Dizzy Spells, But Dreco Gave Relief.

"I know what it is to suffer the tortures of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, and the other ails which go along with them, and I also know what it means to get rid of them," said Mr. John Mellott of 406 Centre St., Findlay, O. Mr. Mellott has been an expert cabinet maker for Folk Bros. for the past 18 years.

"This medicine has almost worked a miracle in my case. After each meal I'd fill up with gas; my stomach burned like fire, and I had griping pains. My bowels were badly constipated; I suffered from dizziness and vertigo and became nervous so that I slept poorly and would rise in the morning feeling tired out.

"I had taken much medicine, designed to cure such troubles, but I never got more than temporary relief. I think the reason Dreco has done me so much good is because it acted on the rest of the trouble. It got my bowels moving regularly; cleared my liver off and strengthened my stomach. I've taken three bottles of Dreco and my troubles have been relieved. I sleep sound; have a good appetite and feel good all over."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Lima by Baldwin's Central Drug store, corner Main and High streets.

A black and white illustration of a vintage open-top car driving on a winding road. The car is shown from a side profile, moving towards the right. A driver is visible in the front seat. The road curves through a landscape with trees and a large house in the background. The entire scene is enclosed within a decorative border.

BRINGING UP FATHER—

Short Shavings

"I couldn't sleep last night because of that lobster."

"How long have you been having cat for supper?"

"Why do you insist that the farmer is not properly considered? Everybody is talking about the importance of agricultural production?"

"Maybe it's something like professional jealousy," replied Farmer Cortossel. "We go to the county fair expectin' to have all kinds a fuss over the prize pigs and pumpkins and find that the whole crowd has rushed off to the motion pictures and the movin' pictures."

John Pollard member of the federal trade commission was raised down in Virginia where real life bears still roam the woods. In the same neighborhood with Pollard there once lived an old fellow who wife made his life very miserable. It was her custom to bounce kettles, brickbats, pieces of stovepipe and scantlings off the old man's head when she had nothing to do.

One day a neighbor rushed into the old man's yard and cried: "Jim, hurry down in the pasture—your wife is in a fight with a bear!" "Not on your life," Jim replied, pulling fit the stem of his cornucopia pipe, "that bear got himself into a fight and he can get out the best way he can."

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself" observed the teacher severely to the small girl who had

Why Dread Old Age?

It doesn't matter how old you are, you'll grow old and everyone takes a count of their years if you live long enough. But your joints, muscles and bones are often due to neglect and don't trouble them and not in men as they do for work kidneys. You use your kidneys. LIMA, PERU—A 40-year-old male, of Peruvian descent, was brought to the hospital by ambulance with a complaint of severe back pain. The patient had been in good health until 1 month before admission, when he began to experience intermittent back pain, which gradually increased in severity. The pain was localized to the lower back and was exacerbated by bending over or lifting heavy objects. He had no history of trauma, falls, or recent infections. He had no family history of kidney disease or hypertension. He was a heavy smoker (20 cigarettes per day) and had been drinking alcohol regularly (one to two glasses of wine daily) for many years. He had no known allergies and was not taking any medications at the time of admission. On physical examination, the patient appeared well but was in significant discomfort. His vital signs were stable. The physical examination was unremarkable except for tenderness over the lower back. Laboratory tests, including a complete blood count, serum electrolytes, and a urinalysis, were within normal limits. A plain film X-ray of the lumbar spine showed no obvious abnormalities. A computed tomography (CT) scan of the lumbar spine revealed a large, well-defined, enhancing mass in the right hemipelvis, consistent with a renal cell carcinoma. The mass was approximately 10 cm in diameter and had a central area of necrosis. It was displacing the surrounding structures, including the right kidney and the adjacent muscles. The CT scan also showed no evidence of metastatic disease to the lungs, liver, or other organs. The patient was diagnosed with a large renal cell carcinoma. He was taken to the operating room for a radical nephrectomy and lymph node dissection. The surgical specimen was sent for histopathological examination. The postoperative course was unremarkable, and the patient was discharged on the fifth day after surgery. He was advised to stop smoking and to avoid alcohol. He was scheduled for a follow-up visit in 2 weeks.

WORRY AND WRINKLES

Dependancy is a thing of evil results. Work produces nothing but wrinkles and wrinkles produce wrinkles. Let the reader put a note on her bureau, on her desk, and at the head of her bed, just two words.

"Don't Worry"

Worry is the greatest foe to the happiness of any household. An anxious, dependent face, a fretful, complaining voice will make every one uncomfortable.

truly the cause of worry than outside trouble. The nerves are to a woman's body the telegraph system which surely warns her of any trouble in the feminine make-up. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the ideal woman's tonic for such conditions. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic, known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send a trial size of "Favorite Prescription" tablets for 10c. Also write Dr. Pierce for confidential advice and you will receive the medical attention of a specialist, wholly without fee—no charge whatever.
